

ESW Open Seminar Series

Wednesday 27 February, 4.30-6pm
Room G22, Jubilee Building, University of Sussex

The Open University

LGBTQ+ youth, mental health and wellbeing to wellbeing, and when ruptured can adversely impact on the mental health of young people. Families' investment in quality time can facilitate communication and a sense of family belonging. Conversely, family tensions could also erupt during these 'precious' times. Parental practices of care can convey meaningful sentiments - such as being there for the young person - but these