Oritical Theory Research Group Events SPR 2021/22

Week 5 Wed 23 February, 1.00-5.30pm

WORKSHOP 4: Rights, Justice and Ecology

PANELA: Revolution, Relation and Abolitionist Praxis 13.00-15.00 UK Time

Chair: Bal Sokhi-Bulley | Discussant:

After Rights.. Renarration, Reparation, Relation

"After" the Haitian Revolution: A recursive analysis of the concept of liberation

Freedom now: Envisioning Palestinian liberation thr Envisioning Pa() Iniabog08 liberas (P) d04 raxreW TF41.0

Week 8 Thursday 17 March, 2.00-3.30

PhD RESEARCHER ROUNDTABLE EVENT

Chairs: Hannah Blitzer and Christina Miliou Theocharaki (Sussex Law School)

Joint event with SCHRR

This session is concerned with inciting conversations between researchers, and creating awareness and an ethos of openness amongst our critical research community. Led by

, the session will feature presentations by PhD researchers in LPS on their current work. Planned in a roundtable style, these conversations will be themed around questions that include: How

Week 11 Thursday 28 April, 2.00-3.30pm

(Routledge, 2021)

In this session, will present themes from his recent book,

(Routledge, 2021). He will focus on the different ways in which our 'age of rights' has obscured the important work of obligations in modern societies. Drawing on examples from the workplace, the market, and conditions of indebtedness, he shows how obligations and hybrids of obligation and obedience play a key role in sustaining inequalities in contemporary society. He will also assess the potentially positive contribution of discourses of obligations for critical legal analysis.

With discussants