

4. Research policy, integrity, and ethics: Develop a strong familiarity with all University policies relating to research and research-related activities and, drawing on advice and support from relevant areas of the Professional Services, ensure that these are understood and implemented.

The Head of School will discuss a forthcoming vacancy for the Directorship with the Pro-Vice-Chancellor (Research) and subsequently invite expressions of interest to undertake the duties of the Director from senior academic members of the School which, for the Director of Research and Knowledge Exchange,