STAFF CODE OF CONDUCT AND DECLARATION AND REGISTER OF INTERESTS

1. This Code of Conduct is to assist members of staff in dealing with conflicts of interest that may arise in the course of their duties. It is the responsibility of each member of staff to ensure that they act in accordance with the principles set out in this Code and to declare any interests which may conflict with their University activities and matters with which they are involved as members of a public body. To facilitate good practice and to reinforce the University s commitment to propriety at all times, it has been agreed that a Register of Interests should be maintained and updated on an annual basis (and amended during the year as relevant changes of notifiable interests arise). The Register will record financial and other relevant interests
